TEMPLE BOARD NEWS

Just a few updates on the Lyndhurst Masonic Center

Work has been done over the summer, including replacing many of the ceiling tiles. Those that were too high to reach easily will be replaced soon. Some buffing was completed but it is necessary to fix the buffer before more is done.

Some new lighting was installed and the kitchen stove upstairs is having it's knobs replaced. We will be getting new fire extinguishers and updating the fire exits soon. There will also be a new ice machine downstairs very soon.

For more details of what our Temple Board is doing please come to the Temple Board meetings. The next one is November 10th. All members are welcome.

Please contact John Huston or Neil Copeland (440-729-9090) if you become aware of any problems or concerns with the building. Any assistance with the various maintenance issues is also greatly appreciated. If supplies for the restrooms look low, please contact our Janitor Donna Leonardi. She does come in throughout the week but an extra busy night can go through some items pretty quickly. Her number is at the main entrance. Thank you for your assistance.

Kudos to one of our Temple Board Officers

At the Ohio DeMolay Conclave held in Canton this summer, John Huston was presented the "Guild of the Leather Apron" This is the highest award giving by International DeMolay to an Advisor. This award is given to only a few.

John was taken by surprise and did not know anything about receiving it. Our two sons attended the Ohio DeMolay Conclave luncheon with him where it was presented. Both of our sons served as Master Councilors of Selynma DeMolay and were District Officers and State Officers. They as well as myself were very proud that John received this award. - Submitted by Dorothy Huston

SCRIBES CORNER

First off, sorry for the delay of this issue and the absence of a summer issue. Circumstances got in the way of me completing this as I had hoped but I will strive to do better in the future. I apologize to those that actually submitted information for the summer.

Anyone who has requested to have an advertisement in our Temple Bulletin will have it showing starting with the November/December newsletter. I can still take orders if you are interested.

For those that are submitting trestle boards, information, and/or comments for the bulletins, please submit them as soon as you can for forthcoming issues. The sooner I have submissions the sooner I can be finishing up our bulletin. Thanks so much for all that have been helping me gather information!

Throughout this issue are some pictures taken by myself and Barbara Catalano at the 200th Anniversary Parade in Columbus last June. Our Lyndhurst Temple banner was used for the first time. It was great to see so many from our various bodies that meet at Lyndhurst! There will be other photos showing up on our Temple website and one can view some at various Lodge websites. We will also be posting some pictures of the Lyndhurst Home Days Parade.

Congratulations to the many new officers in Royal Arch, Council, Commandery, and DeMolay! Best wishes for a successful and happy term.

Please keep December 14th open if you have children in your family. That is the date for the tentative Temple-wide Holiday Party for Lyndhurst. The upcoming Worshipful Masters and incoming Worthy Matron are still in the planning stages so watch for an update later. Though it was quite snowy last year, those that came had a really good time. We hope to see more this year.

Have a great fall and safe traveling, Donnalyn Mumaw - Editor
